Prospects Group – Careers in Practice 2020

Where could a career in Finance, Economics or Law take you?

Prospects, together with Shaw Trust, offers Year 11–13 students the unique opportunity to gain insights into career areas that are traditionally hard to access. Through established links with prestigious employers and institutions, there are a limited number of places for the February sessions of Careers in Practice. These two-day intensive courses cover careers in the Finance and Economics sectors or the Legal profession.

The programmes aim to provide students with the opportunity to learn first-hand about careers, gaining practical experience to improve their knowledge, and their chance of university selection and interview. Over the two days, students will get:

- A valuable and varied experience
- Access to leading organisations
- First hand, accurate and up to date careers and labour market information
- Presentations from professionals in their workplace.

- Specialist and practical careers advice covering personal statements and CV preparation
- Build up a network with other like-minded students.

Prospects and Shaw Trust City Careers Scholarships

There are a limited number of fully paid scholarships for young people who would benefit from the opportunities provided by these events. To find out more about the scholarship criteria and how to apply, click here.

Apprenticeship Opportunities

Ashurst Solicitor Apprenticeship 2020

Would you like to become a lawyer with a leading international firm but not sure that full-time university is the right fit for you?

Ashurst's solicitor apprenticeship offers an exciting route to becoming a qualified lawyer in England & Wales outside of the traditional training contract. This is the third year that the scheme has been running at the firm. It is designed to help school-leavers kick-start their career with a structured learning programme and provides the opportunity to avoid student debt whilst earning a wage and gaining invaluable experience.

The level 7 solicitor apprenticeship lasts 6 years and incorporates an LLB (Hons.) degree and the new solicitor qualifying exams. Alongside studying part-time with The University of Law one day a week, you will gain hands-on experience of a wide range of legal work.

Applications for the 2020 solicitor apprenticeship intake are now open and you can apply (and learn more about the scheme) via the early careers section of Ashurst's website: <https://www.ashurst.com/en/careers/students-and-graduates/uk/apprenticeship/>

Applications will close on 1 March 2020 for a September 2020 start. Candidates must be on track to obtain ABB at A Level (or equivalent) in any subjects - you don't need to have studied law before!

Please email Nicola.stafford@ashurst.com directly with any questions about the scheme or recruitment process.

Sky apprenticeship programmes – OPEN (closing date 17th Feb.)

There are a variety of apprenticeship programmes offered by Sky, including:

Sky News, Sky News Reporter, Sky Sports News, Cyber Security, Software Development, Technology, Finance, Marketing, Sky Media.
