YEAR 10: BECOMING A PREFECT

We are due to launch the process for applying to become a prefect to all Year 10 students next week.

We intend to follow this provisional timeline:

Thursday 30th Jan: Assembly to all Year 10 students

Friday 31st Jan: 'Passport to Prefect' cards given out to students

Monday 24th Feb: Application deadline

Early March: Prefect Interviews

Mid March: Prefect Training

Late March: Shadow current prefects and start role formally after Trial Exams

Application Process:

- Students are expected to meet certain criteria in terms of attendance and behaviour
- Students complete a 'Passport to Prefect' card, giving examples and evidence of how they are developing their 'Character Traits' in and out of lessons.
- Students write a letter of application.

Waves of applications:

This is the first 'wave' of applications.

There will be a second opportunity to apply later in Year 10 and early in Year 11.

YEAR 10 TRIAL EXAMS

These take place straight after the Easter holidays.

We will be sharing timetables and logistical information after Half Term.

We will review strategies for preparation with students in LL.

Students will be given subject-specific guidance about the expectations of their exam in lessons.

MONDAY 20th APRIL – TUESDAY 28th APRIL

YEAR 10 ELD 4: UNIVERSITY VISITS

The next Extended Learning Day is on WEDNESDAY 4th MARCH 2020.

For Year 10 students, there will be the opportunity for all students to visit a University or College.

More information will follow soon, allowing students the opportunity to express their preferences in terms of the trip.
