Dear Parents / Carers,

Year 7: A Christmas Carol; Quantum Theatre Touring Production

The English Faculty are delighted to announce that Quantum Theatre Touring Company is coming to Sandringham school on the afternoon of Monday 19th December to perform A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens to our Year 7 students.

This classic festive novel is an integral part of our Year 7 curriculum and this is a fabulous opportunity for students to see the story, which they are currently studying brought to life.

The production is 65 minutes long and will be staged in the SandPit Theatre. Students will have a slightly shorter lunch break and the production will finish by 3pm.

There is a voluntary contribution of £3.25 per student to cover the cost of this production which will be added to ParentPay. If an insufficient number of parents / carers are prepared to pay the voluntary contribution, then the production may have to be cancelled for all students.

We look forward to watching this highly recommended production with our students.

Yours sincerely,

Alison Cuneen
