Theatre Technician
Part Time: 20-25hrs per week, 52 weeks per year
H5 – H6 (£23,857 - £28,515) pro rata*
plus anticipated show overtime
Start Date: As soon as possible

The SandPit Theatre is a 268-seat arts venue based on the campus of Sandringham School, an Artsmark Platinum School, which hosts school events, concerts and also hires out space to local community groups. We also run The Performance Support Award, an industry recognised qualification in technical theatre which is open to all. Several volunteers and staff have gone on to careers in reputable companies in the industry. Sandringham school is situated in the picturesque city of St Albans, Hertfordshire, conveniently located just 20 minutes by train from St Pancras, London.

We are looking to recruit a theatre technician to assist with the technical aspects of running the SandPit Theatre including productions, maintenance and various site-specific pieces that happen around the school campus. Knowledge/experience of lighting and sound systems as well as operation is required. Applicants need to be flexible and able to work some evenings/weekends. This is an outstanding opportunity for someone who wants to join a high performing organisation and gain significant experience to further enhance their career.

The successful candidate will:

- have relevant technical expertise in theatre
- have a passion for theatre, be enthusiastic and have a hands-on approach
- have flexibility to work evenings and weekends on a rota basis
- promote Sandringham's ethos and values
- enjoy 25 days' holiday per year, plus bank holidays

What can we offer you?

- The opportunity to work with outstanding students and high-performing Arts faculties
- The chance to work in a positive, welcoming and forward-thinking community
- A dedicated staff who are enthusiastic and who want the best for students
- Coaching provision for all those new to the school within a comprehensive and fully developed induction programme
- A CPD package which is tailored to suit your stage of career development
- A state of the art learning campus which is fully resourced
- Staff can benefit from the school's children of staff admission rule
- Cycle to work scheme which is part of the school's sustainability strategy
- We have recently been awarded the MIND Bronze Wellbeing Accreditation and are committed to supporting the mental, physical and emotional wellbeing of staff and students in the school.

Sandringham School is committed to ensuring inclusion, diversity and equality of opportunity. We welcome applications from all suitable candidates and encourage those from underrepresented groups, and/or with protected characteristics, to apply.

Sandringham is part of the Alban Academies Trust. The school leads the Alban Teaching School Hub and is also a designated Computing Hub.

Deadline for applications is 9am on Monday, 17th April 2023

Actual salary will commensurate with experience and hours, approximately £12,895 - £19,266

Prospective candidates are encouraged to submit their applications as soon as possible as the school reserves the right to close the advert should we feel able to appoint an appropriate candidate. Full details are available from our website www.sandringham.herts.sch.uk or www.teachinherts.com. Applications should include a completed AAT Support Staff Application Form, together with other documentations if deemed relevant to the post, and sent to:
