Dear Parent/Carer,

Arts Week 2023

Firstly, a huge thank you if you signed your child up to take part in the Arts Week drama Stage combat workshop happening on Monday 26th June.

It has been a very popular choice for students and sadly we are now at capacity in terms of allocated spaces. We will hope to do something similar in the future to give more students the opportunity to be involved.

If your child has been given a place you will have received an email from me confirming this. All students with a confirmed space are committed to taking part unless unwell on the day the workshop runs. Information of location and what to bring etc. will be sent to the relevant students taking part before the workshop. We look forward to some (safe) swashbuckling action!

Thank you again for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Aimee Malherbe
Teacher of Drama
