Task 2: British Constitutional History, 1215 - 1972

Your second task is to conduct an investigation into the main developments in the formation of the British Constitution between 1215 - 1972.

Using a range of resources (books, articles, and the internet) complete the summary handout.

You will need to research:

- the historical context of each reform: refer to the key figures involved in each reform and the explanation of the issues prior to reform;
- the key developments: make clear exactly what reforms were introduced;
- impact of the reform.
