Dear Families,

Year 13 Trial Exams

We are writing with some information regarding the upcoming Year 13 Trial Exams which begin in January.

To clarify, students will return to school for the new term on Friday 5th January. Year 13 students are expected to attend school on this day, where they will be following their normal timetable.

During the two-week exam period, students will be on study leave and will only be required to attend school for their examinations. Should students have multiple exams in a day they are welcome to remain on site to revise. Where students only have one examination, they are encouraged to revise at home before and/or after each exam. Students should return to school to resume their normal timetable on Monday 22nd January.

Students have now received their individual examination timetable via their mysandstorm.org email address. Seating for each exam will be released in advance, however, as changes do occur, students are advised to check their dynamic timetables prior to each exam.

If they have any questions or queries relating to their exams, they should speak to their form tutor. Any queries related to individual subjects can be directed to class teachers.

If you have any further questions related to the trial exams, please direct these via email to admin@sandringham.aat.school

Yours sincerely,

Katie Clifford
Performance Director: Year 13
